Mature Faith

Can you learn how to play the guitar? Can you learn how to play a sport? Everyone can learn how to do something, but just learning how to do something or obtaining a certain skill doesn't mean you've perfected it. You don't just learn how to shoot a basketball and expect to make the shot every time. If you want to be good at a certain skill or sport, you learn the basics and then continually work to get better. Even when you feel like you've mastered it, you never stop trying to improve or you lose the abilities you've worked hard to develop.

Can you learn how to obtain a mature faith? Having a mature faith isn't something you're going to get someday, it's realizing you always work toward that goal and practice continually.

"Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you."
